Description

DADO COFFEE INNOVATION, CONVENIENCE AND TRADITION From the experience and from the best blends produced by Cerrone Coffee Roasting it is born an extraordinary product which combines the features of a Bar espresso with the convenience of getting coffee ready in a few seconds without the coffee dealers' technical knowledge. . In fact the coffee and the other articles of wide consumption such as tea, chamomile tea, barley coffee, decaffeinated coffee are supplied as pressurized pods, compact goods, without any bulk for the consumer, available in many kinds according to the taste personal habit that everyone has when he has a good cup of coffee at home or in the office too. The business is made up of all the members of the family of the Cerrone S.N.C., emulates professionalism and kindness of it and it puts personal relations before business ones. The pod is evidence of the right synergy between tradition and innovation to be always closer to the daily needs of every consumer, trying , so, to bring him near to homemade products which are undergone to rigorous controls and improving tests, assuring the best ratio quality - price.
