Description

Our commitment to quality and reliability has transformed Bio-Fungi Ltd from a family business into one of the leading compost and mushroom production companies in Central and Eastern Europe.

Since the company's foundation in 1992 we have endeavoured to employ the latest technologies and quality assurance procedures in our facilities. Our computer-controlled Dutch-style mushroom farms, our closed heat treatment facilities and the use of spawn from manufacturers worldwide for our compost production as well as our chemical-analytical laboratory guarantee the satisfaction of partners in 10 countries around the world.
