Description

More and more people of the world are taking into consideration the importance of health-conscious nutrition generating more and more demand of natural mineral water. Our company is specialized for bottling mineral water and processing mineral water based products. Our flagship product is the brilliant fresh tasting Primus mineral water from the Carpathian basin, rich in minerals in the heart of Europe. The water gushes from the 452 meter deep karst, created 200 million years ago during the trias ages. This untouched, extra ordinary good quality of water contains valuable minerals as calcium, magnesium, hydrogen carbonates, sulphates.

Being unique is insured by the silicon hydroxide content which is the pledge of eternal youth stated by scientists. The water is bottled for our customers as it was saved by the nature, without any water treatment.

The Primus mineral water is slightly alkaline (PH=7,53) tasting not salty not bitter but comfortably natural and neutral. The quality, chemical content, and the package of Primus mineral water in positioning the product in the premium category.

We are seeking importers and whole sale distributors interested in this category of mineral water.
